

CALENDAR OF LOCAL EVENTS - GENERAL INFORMATION

The calendar listings that follow are intended to provide site users with general information about events that are put on by the various non-profit entities active in the Village. Readers are reminded that scheduled events may change during the course of the year, and they should be sure to check with the referenced organization for up to date and complete information for events that may be of interest to them. Information will also be provided in the monthly newsletter, Cotuit Chronicles, that is prepared by the Civic Association, and can also be obtained from the web site of the referenced organization.

In particular, you should be sure to consult the web sites for the following organizations for more details about all of their events and other information:
