

CALENDAR OF LOCAL EVENTS - GENERAL INFORMATION

The calendar listings that follow are intended to provide site users with general information about events that are put on by the various non-profit entities active in the Village. Readers are reminded that scheduled events may change during the course of the year, and they should be sure to check with the referenced organization for up to date and complete information for events that may be of interest to them. Information will also be provided in the monthly newsletter, Cotuit Chronicles, that is prepared by the Civic Association, and can also be obtained from the web site of the referenced organization.

In particular, you should be sure to consult the web sites for the following organizations for more details about all of their events and other information:

The Library hosts several book clubs each month. The Masterpiece Reader's Book Club meets on the third Monday of each month; the Historical Book Club (hosted by the Historical Society) meets on the first Thursday of each month; and the Cotuit Library Book Club meets on the fourth Wednesday of each month.

The Library also hosts a weekly Yoga in the Park in Memorial Park each Tuesday from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

Cotuit Center for the Arts hosts the following regular events:

Drum Circle 1st Sunday of each month;

Salon of Shorts: 3rd Wednesday of each month – open mic series of poetry, story, essay and song;

Second Wednesday Theater: 2nd Wednesday of each month – free play readings;

Drumming Through Trauma (ongoing Tuesdays);

Life Drawing (ongoing Tuesdays); and

What's Your Story (ongoing Saturdays) – a writing gym for women.

Wine & Music Wednesday: 3rd Wednesday of each month; and Sunday Morning Yoga: ongoing Sundays.

Information concerning those events can be found on the web sites of those organizations, or by calling them for details.

The Cotuit Kettleers also post a schedule of all of the team's games on their web site, as well as information about their youth and advanced baseball clinics.
